

I am opposed to the creation and implementation of a Federal law that would replace Wisconsin's No Call law. Since Wisconsin's law has been implemented, I have enjoyed not having telemarketers invade my privacy on a regular basis. Business have available to them many less intrusive ways to advertise and market their products and services.